Most of the small houses located along the north side of the 200 block of Churchill St. are two stories in height and two bays wide with shed roofs and late Victorian brick and metal cornices. They originally served as carriage houses for the houses to the rear facing on Montgomery St. but have since been remodeled as residences. An exception is the group of houses at 226-232 Churchill St., which are two story, gable-roofed houses typical of the type of small gable-roofed house built for a working class market in the 1850's and 1860's.

This two story, two bay brick house with shed roof was originally built as a carriage house and later converted to a residence.

The house is two stories in height, about 13' wide, and occupies a lot about 50' deep. The house is two rooms deep and there is no rear addition. The house is constructed in running bond. The shed roof is capped by a late Victorian brick and metal cornice. There is a single hooded chimney located at the north-west corner of the house.

The door and window openings have splayed brick lintels and brick header sills. All of the window openings are filled with 1/1 double hung sash. A modern panel door with upper lights is set beneath a single light transom. The house sits on a low basement, the entrance being reached by two brick steps. A low rectangular basement opening is located to the left of the steps.
